

Central Coast GIS User Group

1/30/2008

Minutes

Central Lincoln presented an overview of their ArcObjects customizations and demonstrated some of the functions as well. They also discussed various design aspects pertaining to accessing and interfacing with many non-geographic information sources such as billing and financial software packages.

We decided to schedule meetings for the second Wednesday of every other month during midday.